On Saturday, July 23, 2005, Kris was standing behind the starting line all posed and ready to run in the Excellent Jumpers With Weaves class at the Chuckanut DTC's Agility Trials in Lynden, Washington. The timer said, "Go," and in just 43+ seconds Kris raced and maneuvered the course with ease, cleared 17 jumps, went through a long curved tunnel and weaved 12 weave poles with precision. As he cleared the last jump, Kris entered the Saint Bernard history books as this run completed the requirements for AKC's Master Jumpers Preferred 2 title--a 20 leg title! This is Kris's FOURTH Master Agility Title as he also has two Master Titles in the Standard Class!

The Excellent B Classes in Agility are the top level of AKC Agility. The classes provide challenging courses where maneuvering and precision go hand-in-hand with speed. To earn a leg in the Excellent B classes, the dog must have a perfect run (no faults) and do it under time. Not an easy task for ANY breed--let alone a 145-pound Saint Bernard!

Through his physical conditioning program, Kris has had the advantage of being muscled-up and fit as a fiddle, plus extremely sound in body and mind. If you are ever lost on a mountain, you had better wish for Kris to be on rescue duty that day! Climbing a mountain and maneuvering the terrain with speed and accuracy would be second nature to this agility-tracking-titled dog. Of course, being a WORKING Saint Bernard it would also be his first nature to carry out a rescue. Way to go, CH, WDCH XmaxKris Van 't Hof Ten Eynder VCD2, UDX, MXP2, MJP2, DD, WP

Agility trials reflect back to our breed's history and provide a way for us to show our breed still possesses skills to work mountain terrains.
