August 7, 2005, was another very special day in our lives as Kris finished his 5th Master Agility (MXP3) title at the Gig Harbor KC's agility trials! This new title also completed 50 perfect runs in the Excellent B classes of agility with 3 Master Standard Preferred titles and 2 Master Jumpers Preferred titles to his name. And I used to think Saint Bernard=Agility was an oxymoron. Not any more, as our boy just finished his new 30-legged title!

One interesting fact that came to mind is just last year at Gig Harbor's obedience trial, Kris finished his 50th advanced (open and/or utility) obedience score which was our goal in obedience after earning his UDX title.

Through his physical conditioning program, Kris has had the advantage of being muscled-up and fit as a fiddle, plus extremely sound in body and mind. If you are ever lost on a mountain, you had better wish for Kris to be on rescue duty that day! Climbing a mountain and maneuvering the terrain with speed and accuracy would be second nature to this agility-tracking-titled dog. Of course, being a WORKING Saint Bernard it would also be his first nature to carry out a rescue. Agility trials reflect back to our breed's history and provide a way for us to show our breed still possesses skills to work mountain terrains.

Kris adds title number 22 to his name:
