As Kris neared his 7th birthday after "Mastering" the Agility, Conformation and Obedience titles (see above), we were looking for another activity in the world of dogs. As it so happens, AKC Rally was introduced in 2005 so why not give this new performance event a try?

Rally does not require the honed skills of Master Agility ring, nor is it at the UDX level of Obedience, but it is a sport less strenuous on the joints which is a good thing for a seven-year old. It sounded like the perfect venue for a Kris who loves keeping busy by going to dog shows with his family!

Kris really seemed to enjoy the new outings to the Rally rings. But then again, he likes to do anything with Daddy. In three shows straight, Kris earned his Rally Novice (RN) title and became the first Saint Bernard Champion to earn a Rally title.

We are now keeping the calendar clear on the weekends so we may continue on for the advanced Rally titles, plus Kris is still working on his tracking skills getting ready for a try at a Tracking Dog Excellent (TDX) title—providing we can ever get in a Tracking test!

Never a dull moment, but that is what Kris thrives on—busy, busy, busy!
