"Rio" began her show career at seven months of age on June 7th & 8th, 2008 at the Puyallup Dog Fanciers and Tacoma Kennel Club. She continued on winning her class on numerous occasions (but no points) until July 5th at the Coos KC where she won Winner's Bitch for her first 2 points. There were many Reserve wins over the next few months until the Willamette Valley KC combined specialty, where she received her first (of many to follow) Best of Opposite Sex awards for another point, at eleven months of age.

Then she went on a bit of a roll. At twelve months, she won Winners Bitch at the Sammamish KC Show in January 2009 for 2 more points. The next day at the Puyallup Valley Dog Fanciers she also won Winners Bitch for another point--and off she went! . On December 12th at two years of age Rio won the last major. At the SBC Puget Sound's banquet she received Top all-breed Bitch for 2009.

Well, it didn't take long for beautiful Rio to begin her quest toward her Grand Championship. Continuing on her roll over the next few months, Rio finished her Grand Championship at home in Puyallup (where it all started) at the age of three.

While all this was taking place, she was also earning her Rally titles (RN, RA & RE).

Lest we forget, her Weight Pull (WP) & Weight Pull Excellent (WPX) titles were acquired in 2009, plus her Weight Pull Superior (WPS) in 2010.
