Snitch and I started our Rally career when she was just 14 months old. I was starting to work on the Rally Advanced (RA) title with my older Saint, and when I entered him at a trial in November 2008, I thought, "Oh heck, as long as I'm going, why not enter Snitch, too?"

It turned out that I didn't take Onni, as he had become very dog reactive and I couldn't trust him off-leash, but I took Snitch anyway. Rally Novice was the last class of the day, and they were running very behind schedule. I checked in and got the map, and then went out into the parking lot and taught Snitch the exercises that would be on the course. We were the last dog, and finally got in the ring at 6:30PM. All the other rings were already picked up, and the crew was sitting there anxiously waiting for us to finish. For no training, she did fairly well, and we Q'd.

We took some formal Rally classes, switched to APDT rally, added obedience and agility, and finally stopped taking rally classes. But we kept on trialing. After a slow start off-leash in Advanced, we Q'd our way through Excellent. Our first Rally Advanced Excellent (RAE) legs were earned at the St. Bernard Club of Southern Oregon specialty under Sue Cox in May 2010. It was a rainy weekend, and Snitch hadn't been out much. In one exercise she decided not to move with me. I took her back and re-started, and she took off with the zoomies. I quickly gave her a "down" command, and called her back to me, and we proceeded with the course. I was happily surprised to see that Sue had a bit of a smile, and we Q'd with a score in the low 80's.

After our RAE I was going to quit, but we entered our club's specialty to "support the club" and I figured, "Well, OK, we may as well go for RAE2." The weekend we earned our RAE2 I had entered the trial the following day as "insurance," so we started working on RAE3. Along the way we encountered dogs that had an RAE12, but everyone was always still impressed that a Saint was working on an RAE3. I think we might retire from AKC Rally now. But who knows I may decide to enter her again "to support the club" and we'll be on our way to RAE4.
