To earn the Preferred Agility Champion title, PACH (this title is a prefix title), a dog must exhibit superior performance on the agility course. Speed and consistency are the two major qualities denoting "superior performance" and therefore they are the basis for the Preferred Agility Championship program.

In order to acquire the Preferred Agility Champion title, a dog must achieve a minimum of 750 championship points and 20 double qualifying scores obtained from the Master Standard and the Master class, 1 point is awarded for each full second under Standard Course Time. Dogs earn points from the Master Standard and/or the Master Jumpers class.

20 Double Qualifications are required. Dogs qualifying with scores of 100 in both the Master Standard and the Master class on the same day equals 1 (2Q).

Hummer earned the PACH title on 11-25-13. I was so nervous. We had already earned 1043 PACH points so we didn't need the points-what we needed was the Double Q. We had already Q'd in Jumpers and just needed the Q in Standard. It is tradition to let the score table know if you are about to earn a MACH/PACH so that they can present you with a "Pole" (a decorated jump bar) and a large ribbon after your run. After your run, you and your dog are presented with the pole and ribbon and you are allowed to run around the ring while people cheer. The day before, Hummer had Q'd in Jumpers and I told the score table that a PACH was possible. Everyone knew which made me even more nervous. We faulted in Standard and I was so disappointed. So, the following day.....I told NO ONE that we might be earning a PACH. It took some of the pressure off and when we earned our PACH that day the club did not have a ribbon or pole for us but we still ran around the ring! I was jumping up and down and Hummer got so excited! The hosting club found out that Hummer was the first Saint Bernard ever to earn a PACH and ordered a beautiful custom 4-foot ribbon made for us with Hummer's name and an additional ribbon on it stating "1st ever Saint Bernard PACH".

In all honesty, I never thought that we would earn a PACH. It is very difficult and many people with the larger dogs never earn a PACH. You must have speed along with qualifying runs. Hummer has the speed but qualifying in the Standard class has been inconsistent for him. I am so proud of Hummer for getting this title done!
