First Saint Bernard to earn - RM2

I will never forget our first Master Rally leg! Shayna showed me that she could earn a good score and place in Master class. This first experience was part of why I decided to go for our Rally Championship.

Shayna and I were at a double rally trial. In the morning trial we had finished our Rally Excellent title. It was not our best performance, but I was quite pleased with my beast. After we got our ribbon, I sat next to her crate and realized that we were still entered in the afternoon trial. Not wanting to waste an entry I decided to move her up to master. I had shown my German shepherd in Master Rally, but it had been a while since I had shown in the handler intensive master class. I quickly pulled up the signs on my phone for review.

The afternoon came and I looked at the course map. And I thought "we might just be able to pull this off!" There were about 15 dog and handler teams in Master that day and we were the last one to run. Our turn finally came! And as we walked in to the ring Shayna was quite literally bounding with excitement. I was quite surprised by how much dog I had in the ring. After a long day she was still enjoying herself immensely! Though I quickly realized this could be a double edged sword.

The first sign we came to was the "recall over a jump", the jump in masters is always performed as a recall. We halted before the jump and as I was leading out it finally hit me that I would have to recall my overly excited Saint Bernard over a broad jump, stand still, and pray for her to sit in front without plowing me down! I led out almost to the wall of the ring thinking I could use it for stability if I needed. As I turned to look at my dog, I saw her face lathered with anticipation, her body poised for take off! I took a deep breath, gulped, and said "Come Jump." That phrase was quickly followed by a firm yet desperate “EASY!” And after she ran into my legs she sat so nicely in a perfect front position. Of course at this point I had fallen back into the wall but managed to only move one of my feet.

The rest of the course went quite nicely! And when she finished several people clapped for us, which fed the Saint’s pride in her performance. We walked out of the ring with her once again bouncing up and down. After we got her treats I went up to check her score. To my surprise we got a 96! As I scanned through the other scores I got another shock, we had gotten second place!

My big girl blew me away! Our first Master leg, second place, championship points, and of course her goofy and fun loving attitude! She just earned her RM2, which means she has run me down on the recall over a jump sign, 20 times! But I would have it no other way!
